IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.45818 of 2008
ANIL SINGH
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 17.12.2008 Heard Sri Kumar Sunil, Advocate for the petitioner and Sri D. Mehta, APP for the State.

The court could have considered the prayer for bail had it not confronted a fact as serious as appearing in the petition of complaint that the petitioner in order to getting rid of the lady took her to Dehri on the pretext of attending a Satsang and administered any unwholesome substance to her and she became unconscious. When she regained consciousness, she found herself at Patna Junction. She was found weeping by persons at the Junction, who assembled and purchased a ticket for the travel of the lady up to Mugalsarai. If this could be the conduct of a husband, then no court could grant bail to him.

The petition is dismissed.
